

The Beautiful New Fairview, Texas Fire Station

1200 Stacy Road

Public Open House May 1, 2010

I've never seen the fire stations in Carmel, Palm Springs, or La Jolla California, but I can't imagine they would be any nicer than the new Fairview, Texas station. This building is outfitted as well as some of our million dollar homes.

Fairview has always done things the right way, and there's no doubt, their firefighters appreciate the commitment the city has made to them.
